

Global Scholar: Student Planning Sheet

Meet with your UARC Advisor or your Faculty Advisor (in your major) to discuss the Global Scholar option and how it fits into your plans for graduation and beyond

Declare the Global Scholar option

- Track your progress on your STAR report

Chart your path - You will need 12 cr. plus a global experience

➤ 3cr. Global Citizenship (GC) course (100/200 level)

3cr. _____

- Global Citizenship is a general education requirement.

➤ 9 cr. Global Scholar (GS) courses (300/400 level)

3cr. _____

3cr. _____

3cr. _____

- Only 6 cr. may be taken in the same department or program.
- You may substitute 3 cr. of additional GC designated foreign language (100/200 level) for a 3cr. Global Scholar (GS) course.

➤ Engage in a “high impact learning” experience, document that experience in an ePortfolio presentation (through D2L eP or other electronic format) and reflect on your learning as a global scholar.

Global Experience: _____

- Pre-check form submitted to the Global Scholar Council
- ePresentation completed and submitted for review by your mentor
- ePresentation submitted via D2L to the Global Scholar Council
- ePresentation-review form submitted to the Global Scholar Council

- There are no credits associated with this requirement - the point is the experience and your documentation and reflection about what you learned.
- The Global Scholar Council will record your completed submission with the Registrar, and this will be reflected on your STAR report as a “milestone.”
- You may complete the experience at anytime during your progress to your degree.
